

School System

Requirements

- A project For School System
 - The school system should contain data represent students/teachers
 - this data should be created throw an interface or abstraction data that represents the common properties
 - Each teacher has his own unique Id-Name-Gender (male or female) and Subject assigned("math-Arabic-Science-English")
 - Each Student has his own unique id-name-group of teachers assigned to the student (relation between student and teacher =>1 to many, one student can have more than one teacher)
-

user requests

- the user will fill the teacher data (except the id =>id is auto increment)
- the user will fill the student data including the group of teachers assigned (except the id =>id is auto increment)
- the user after filling the data. Can print it by the name of student of teacher